

Allison S. Carcelli

Description

Biography

Allison Carcelli is a Partner with DDWK in Irvine. Allisonâ??s current practice focuses on design professional defense, general civil litigation, construction defect litigation and transactional work. Allisonâ??s experience also includes defending large-scale residential developers in suits filed by single-family tract homeowners and homeowner associations. Additionally, Allison has assisted in mediation and trial of several trust litigation cases and she has a background in personal injury, criminal defense, and family law.

After managing e-Discovery issues in her cases and developing an interest in the field, Allison passed the ACEDS Certified E-Discovery Specialists examination in June of 2015. She handled all matters involving e-discovery at her previous firm, ranging from the selection and installation of e-discovery software through administration of e-discovery during a 5-month arbitration proceeding in which she concurrently served as second-chair counsel for one of the principal parties.

Education

- California Western School of Law, J.D., 1993
- International Legal Studies Program, Cambridge University, 1992
- University of California, Davis, B.S., International Relations, 1990

Admissions

- All Courts of the State of California
- United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

Memberships and Activities

- Women in eDiscovery, Orange County chapter, Board of Directors, 2017
- Orange County Bar Association, Member, Construction Defect Section